

City of Brisbane

PROCLAMATION

RECOGNIZING JUNE HEAVNER AS BRISBANE VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR 2022

WHEREAS, June Heavner has demonstrated her ongoing commitment to improving the quality of life for members of our community, we wish to recognize her enduring spirit of volunteering and dedication to Brisbane; and,

WHEREAS, she served on the Mothers of Brisbane Board for over 8 years, creating community online, and in person, to support Brisbane families; and,

WHEREAS, June volunteers her time at Brisbane schools, supporting students and teachers, coordinating school-based events, serving on BES PTO, and working to ensure that art and music remain in our schools; and,

WHEREAS, June stepped up to coach youth soccer for AYSO, and organizes community hikes up San Bruno Mountain; and,

WHEREAS, she is an active member of the Friends of Brisbane Library Board, volunteering for all their events and projects; and,

WHEREAS, June never hesitates to step forward whenever anything is needed for the youth of Brisbane, and never asks for anything in return; and,

WHEREAS, June embodies the spirit of this award by generously and selflessly dedicating her time, energy, and talents to serving others; and,

Now, therefore, be it resolved, that the City of Brisbane takes great pleasure in declaring June Heavner, the 2022 Brisbane Volunteer of the Year!

Dated: 10/06/2022

Coleen Mackin, Mayor