WHEREAS, our public works professionals provide services of vital importance to the health, safety and well-being of the people of Brisbane; and,
WHEREAS, public works focuses on our infrastructure, facilities, emergency management, and crucial services that provide us with a high quality of life; and,
WHEREAS, the citizens of Brisbane should understand the importance of public works in our community. We acknowledge that public works professionals are the first responders, engineers, managers and employees at all levels who build, rebuild, improve and protect our transportation, water supply, water treatment, solid waste systems, public buildings and other structures essential to our City; and,
WHEREAS, our citizens are urged to recognize and appreciate the substantial contributions these dedicated professionals make 24/7, 365 days a year, to ensure our health, safety, and quality of life; and,
WHEREAS, 2022 marks the 62nd annual National Public Works Week; and,
THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, as Mayor of the City of Brisbane, I hereby designate May 15–21, as Public Works Week.
IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 5th day of May, in the year 2022.

Dated: 05/05/2022

Coleen Mackin, Mayor
